Sacramental Information - Contact Parish Office

- Baptismal preparation and scheduling.
- To learn about the Catholic faith/Rite of Christian initiation.
- Religious education for children and young adults with disabilities (SPRED).
- Marriage preparation: Please schedule an appointment at least 6 months before the wedding.
- Sacrament of the Sick: In case of an emergency, please note that a priest is on call at both hospitals.
- Homebound or hospitalized parishioners who wish to receive the sacraments or be visited.

Dear Parishioners:

A number of parishioners have commented how pleased they are with the television ads entitled “Catholics Come Home.” They find them very positive and uplifting. I agree. I am sure they are motivating some people to find out more about our faith. You can help that process. Last weekend as you left church, you may have received a card with the heading “Welcome to Prince of Peace Parish.” If you didn’t, there are many more such cards at all the doors of our churches. Give some thought to handing that card to someone who is never with us on Sundays. Perhaps we can be of help to them in their search for God in their life. This card can be a simple way for them to let us know of their interest.

This weekend, as you leave church, you will receive a prayer card dedicated to our seminarians. This is Vocation Awareness Week. Our parish is privileged to have two seminarians, Kyle Doustou, studying in Washington, DC, and Emile Dube, studying in Boston. Deacon Emile Dube will be ordained a priest this May at Holy Family Church. Please remember all our seminarians in your prayers. May God grant them the gift of perseverance.

When it comes to promoting vocations to the priesthood or the religious life, there is no substitute for a family that prays together and lives its faith. It is hard to imagine how vocations can be fostered without this. Also, it is not enough to pray that someone else’s children or grandchildren become priests, sisters or brothers. One is asked to pray that one’s own children or grandchildren might be called to ordained ministry or religious life.

Finally, on Wednesday we begin the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Whenever you pray the Our Father this week, remember that you pray this in union with all our brothers and sisters around the world who share our faith in Jesus, even if they are not joined with us in the Catholic Church. They are brothers and sisters to us even though we are not fully united in faith and life. We pray that we will draw closer to each other, as Christ willed, by more and more faithful discipleship.

God bless,

Msgr. Marc Caron, Pastor

Catholic Relief Services/East African Famine Relief - Second Collection

Weekend of January 14/15

More than 12 million people are in need of urgent humanitarian assistance in Kenya, Somalia and Ethiopia because of what many are calling the worst drought in decades. This severe lack of rainfall has resulted in failed crops, deaths of livestock and critical shortages in food and water. Catholic Relief Services has worked in East Africa for decades, and is on the ground responding to this emergency.

“CRS can use all the help we can offer in this current tragic situation,” wrote Archbishop Timothy Dolan, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and Bishop Gerald Kicanas, chairman of the Board of Catholic Relief Services. “Through CRS, our generosity could literally feed thousands and provide them clean water, shelter and other life-saving goods. Over time, CRS will be able to expand already proven drought mitigation and other development that unfortunately are now only available in a handful of villages.”

Thank you for your generous support.

"¿Qué buscan?"
~ Juan 1, 35-42

Esta lectura nos cuenta sobre la llamada a los primeros discípulos. Los seguidores de Juan el Bautista responden a la invitación de Jesús y se quedan con Él todo el día. Después esos discípulos llaman a sus amigos para que se unan a ellos. La pregunta de Jesús es para nosotros también. Es decir, ¿Cuáles son los deseos de nuestro corazón? ¿A qué nos sentimos llamados? Los que le seguían le preguntaron, "¿Dónde vives?", en otras palabras, "¿Quién eres?". Queremos saber quien es Jesús y El quiere saber que es lo que llevamos dentro, porque de nada sirve encontrarlo si no estamos dispuestos a entregarnos. La invitación de Jesús es de venir y ver. Es una invitación de vida – es una invitación a entrar en una relación con Él. Al conocer a Jesús y al seguir su camino, estamos también indicando ese camino a otros.

- ✠ Jesús preguntó a los que le seguían: "¿Qué buscan?"
¿Cómo respondo yo?
- ✠ ¿Realmente busco el reino de Dios?
- ✠ ¿Soy yo un medio para que otros también sigan el camino del Señor?

Misa en Español: Todos los sábados a las 7:00 pm en la Capilla de Saints Peter and Paul (Entrada por Bartlett Street).

PRAYER REQUEST

St. Dominic Academy's ninth graders will be on retreat Wednesday, January 18, from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. Please pray for them as they learn more about the Mass.

They will attend Eucharistic Adoration, learn about the word changes in the Mass, and learn how we are all called to become saints. They will also learn that the Eucharist is food for their soul and how their hands become the manger when they receive communion.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

On behalf of St. Vincent de Paul Society, I would like to extend a most sincere THANK YOU for your generous response to our Christmas food basket appeal. Your donations helped us meet the needs of 115 families in our community, which included 232 adults and 127 children. God bless you all!

Pauline Marsh, President

THE JESSE TREE COMMITTEE

To the Prince of Peace Parishioners who chose a star from the Jesse Tree at the Basilica of Saints Peter & Paul, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU! What an amazing response! Because of your generosity, 99 children experienced a much happier Christmas. May God's blessings be with you!

Parts of the Mass

The Mass follows a “fundamental structure which has been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1346). Though the Mass is one unified act of worship, it consists of many parts, each with its own purpose and meaning. The entries in this article follow the order in which the parts occur in the Mass.

Introductory Rites: “The rites that precede the Liturgy of the Word, namely, the Entrance, the Greeting, the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, the Glória in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) and Collect, have the character of a beginning, an introduction, and a preparation. Their purpose is to ensure that the faithful who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], no. 46).

Collect: “The [opening] prayer . . . through which the character of the celebration finds expression” (GIRM, no. 54). This prayer literally “collects” the prayers of all who are gathered into one prayer led by the priest celebrant.

Liturgy of the Word: “The main part of the Liturgy of the Word is made up of the readings from Sacred Scripture together with the chants occurring between them. As for the Homily, the Profession of Faith and the Universal Prayer, they develop and conclude it” (GIRM, no. 55).

Creed: A brief, normative summary statement or profession of Christian faith. The Nicene Creed, which is recited or chanted at Mass, comes from the Councils of Nicea (AD 325) and Constantinople (AD 381).

Canon of the Mass: The central part of the Mass, also known as the Eucharistic Prayer or anaphora, which is the prayer of thanksgiving and consecration. It begins with the Preface Dialogue (i.e., “The Lord be with you. . . . Lift up your hearts. . . . Let us give thanks to the Lord our God”) and concludes with a final Doxology (“Through him, and with him, and in him”) and Amen.

Epiclesis: The prayer petitioning the Father to send the Holy Spirit to sanctify offerings of bread and wine so that they may become the Body and Blood of Christ.

Consecration: The consecration is that part of the Eucharistic Prayer during which the priest prays the Lord’s words of institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Through this prayer the bread and wine become the risen Body and Blood of Jesus.

Anamnesis: From the Greek, meaning “remembrance.” We remember Jesus’ historical saving deeds in the liturgical action of the Church, which inspires thanksgiving and praise. Every Eucharistic Prayer contains an anamnesis or memorial in which the Church calls to mind the Passion, Resurrection, and glorious return of Christ Jesus.

Doxology: A Christian prayer that gives praise and glory to God often in a special way to the three divine Persons of the Trinity. Liturgical prayers, including the Eucharistic Prayer, traditionally conclude with the Doxology “to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit.”

Communion Rite: The preparatory rites, consisting of the Lord’s Prayer, the Rite of Peace, and the Fraction, lead the faithful to Holy Communion (see GIRM, no. 80). The Prayer After Communion expresses the Church’s gratitude for the mysteries celebrated and received.

Rite of Peace: The rite “by which the Church asks for peace and unity for herself and for the whole human family, and the faithful express to each other their ecclesial communion and mutual charity before communicating in the Sacrament” (GIRM, no. 82).

Fraction: “The priest breaks the Eucharistic Bread. . . . The gesture of breaking bread done by Christ at the Last Supper . . . in apostolic times gave the entire Eucharistic Action its name” (GIRM, no. 83).

Communion: Holy Communion, the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

Concluding Rites: “To the Concluding Rites belong the following: brief announcements . . . ; the priest’s greeting and blessing . . . ; the dismissal of the people by the deacon or the priest, so that each may go back to doing good works, praising and blessing God; the kissing of the altar by the priest and the deacon, followed by a profound bow to the altar by the priest, the deacon, and the other ministers” (GIRM, no. 90).
